Q. What is SEED Camp?

A. The acronym SEED stands for Students Engaged in Entrepreneurial Discovery. It's a 3-day creative event that answers everything you wanted to know about starting your own business and building your financial literacy skills. This is not your typical "sit-back and listen" workshop, this is a hands-on, interactive camp!

Q. Why SEED Camp?

A. There are so many reasons to come we're not sure where to start! Here are some of our favorites:

1. Obtain the know-how to turn your dreams into action
  2. Learn from ASU Entrepreneur & Innovation Experts
  3. Engage with successful business persons
  4. Meet like-minded peers & professionals
  5. Score some amazing free stuff, and have a great time!

Q. Do I need to have a brilliant idea to participate in SEED Camp?

A. No, we welcome any/all youth who want to learn about successful businesses based on their own or someone else's brilliant idea.

Q. I can only attend for half of the time, is this possible?

A. Yes, you can! We are offering two sessions so that you can pick which best fits your schedule. You can attend one or both of the sessions. SEED Camp is strategically designed to begin the minute we board the bus together so whether you attend one or both sessions you are part of the Camp community.

Q. Where is camp? Do we sleep in tents?

A. SEED Camp is held at beautiful Tonto Creek Camp, approx. 17 miles east of Payson. Its 36 acres is nestled in the Ponderosa Pines bordering Tonto National Forest. Campers sleep in comfortable, modern cabins, lodges and dormitories complete with heat/air, indoor bathrooms, hot water and more.
